HAUSE ACTUARIAL SOLUTIONS, INC.

November 16, 2026

Like many other organizations, Hause Actuarial Solutions has been affected by the recent Microsoft outages, and we are working on a remedy to fix our email connectivity. At this time, Hause staff members can send emails externally, but are having issues with receiving external email communications. If you receive an "undeliverable" message for an email you sent to a staff member at Hause, please know that we are here and available. Should your need be urgent, please call our office at 913-685-2200 and we will help you with your request and provide any necessary workarounds to take care of your needs. Once the email issues are resolved, we will update this message.

Thank you for your understanding of this unfortunate outage.

Hause Actuarial Solutions, Inc.

UPDATE – 11/17/26 @ 200PM CST:

Our email domain as been refurbished and we are now receiving external emails. If you sent an email to one of our staff members from Friday, November 13th through noon today please email us again so we can make sure your needs are met. Again, we apologize for any inconveniences.
